

Sittler Golf Expanding - Sinking Spring Location Coming 2019

Kutztown, PA November 9, 2018 - Sittler Golf in Kutztown, PA is announcing a brand expansion to Sinking Spring, PA. The prospective acquisition of the current Pagoda Golf Area will grow the Sittler Golf brand to two locations in Berks County, both historically named Top 100 Ranges in America.

Sittler Golf in Kutztown, PA was established in 1993 and has grown to become a local and national award winner in the industry. Owner Rick Kline has been recognized by the PGA as National Merchandiser of the Year and was inducted into the Lehigh Valley Golf Hall of Fame. The establishment has been recognized as Best 100 Club Fitters in America by Golf Digest since 2011 and a top club fitter by multiple golf manufacturers. The family owned facility offers custom club fitting, golf instruction, short game practice, miniature golf, junior golf programs, club repair and more.

The Sittler Golf team plans to begin operations at the Sinking Spring location in early 2019. Development strategies will be in progress throughout the season with no interruption to regular services.

Owners Rick and Patty Kline express gratitude to their loyal customers over the past 25 years that make this exciting adventure possible. This opportunity transpires from endless support within the community, family and an incredible staff. They look forward to joining the Reading area and continuing to provide exceptional golf education and services.
